"Without albumen, no life; without supplies these elements quickly and without strain upon digestion, giving the depleted cells real nutriment, real sustenance and no false stimulation. phosphorus, no thought"-so runs a famous saying. True, the healthy body gets enough albumen and phosphorus from the daily food, but an over-taxed brain and nervous system will run short of these vital substances because the demand outruns the normal supply. Then we have fatigue, depression—and worse, if nothing be done.

It is then that Sanatogen is of splendid aid. Combining purest albumen and organic phosphorus in chemical union, Sanatogen takes to the fundamental sources of ner-

The result of this is well epitomized by Sir Gilbert Parker when he writes, "Sanatogen to my mind is a true food-tonic, giving fresh vigor to the overworked body and mind." And by Arnold Bennett, who tersely reports, "The effect of Sanatogen upon the Inervous system is simply wonderful."

It is good to remember that the medical profession has set the seal of approval upon the value of Sanatogen—no less than 21,000 doctors have written letters endorsing its value.

ciency just the ele-ments needed. It the conviction that Sanatogen will also help you? Sanatogen is sold by good druggists everywhere, in sizes from $1.00 up
